

London's Big Ben & Manhattan's Destruction 10-20-26@2:54 PM

Lord Jesus Christ, I'm here.

Hear the Word of the Lord, of your God and King. Daughter, hear what I say. The time of parables and riddles for this matter is over. As twilight descends, the storm arrives. It brings the destruction of Babylon as well as the three days of darkness and My Great Day of Wrath, the tribulation.

The 3 days of darkness does not follow immediately after the destruction of New York's Manhattan, in that lucifer and his kingdom will not know the exact time it shall descend upon the Earth's inhabitants and all that lives within the firmament.

Many say My words I speak through you are false Daughter, so this day I show them that Father and I have been speaking with you directly, and these words, dreams, and visions are from Heaven. Like so many other of My children whose hearts are chasing after Me too, and are in love with Me as I am with them.

Hear Me Daughter, hear Me. Big Ben is a world famous clock in London. It is well maintained and well preserved. I say, 'Lights out,' to it, and when the lights go out and the clock stops moving forward in time, New York City will explode in its Manhattan financial district first by the nuclear refurbished Soviet-pack-type weapons.

This will not be a mere turning off and turning back on the lights. The lights will go out and the clock shall die, just like those in Manhattan that will perish. Then the ties that connected the British Empire to the American Colonies will really be severed. These things done in secret, the real ownership of your 'thought free' nation, I still see.

The British Empire will no longer rule America from the shadows, and Babylon-America's Manhattan will fall. She will fall Daughter, but the destroying of these ties shall allow her to still survive as a people in war until I remove Mine from her borders, or they are removed by death or captivity. Then I sink her below the waters deep by waves and shakings.

This I command and decree. This it shall be done, for it is written, and the Scripture of Truth cannot ever be broken. After this, Big Ben will never run again. Time will have ended for them.
