

Persia's Next Move 1-15-20@11:13 AM Journal Entry

“All is not as it should be and soon Persia shall lift his hand against the blessed land of My chosen people. Watch Child, for this will be the next occurrence to watch for as the world inches closer to the war of nations.” “This is Israel which You are referring to Lord?” “Yes, Child, it is for there is no love loss between the seed of Isaac and Ishmael.” “What do you want me to do God?” “Write Child, all these words that I am speaking to you for time is short and all these things that are coming to pass shall all interlock like that of a puzzle. Each piece connects one event to another. Persia knows if he targets My people that the eagle will arise from off its perch and swoop down to offer its aid, its assistance. The eagle... for Persia due to the many sanctions upon their land, their hands are tied against the eagle. The eagle and My seed share a common bond. They are both hated by Persia who will stop at nothing to ensure the destruction of both but their hate for My people runs deeper than that of the eagle. So be wary Child, and watch carefully for within a very short time My people, Israel will have been threatened!” “What needs must I do Lord?” “You know already Child. You must get this information out as soon as possible for there isn't much time before the act of aggression is to take place.”
