“Daddy God, Jesus Christ. How can we, the body of Christ, be set apart as holy people when we're intermingling with pagan practices? I was thinking about the church service that I went to when I saw Stephen McWhirter. They were talking about in times past, how one of the members dressed up like the easter bunny. You know, that's the false goddess's eostre who Easter is named from, or eostre, however you say her name, her companion and when you read up on that, it even talks about she got tired of his affairs, many affairs, so it's easy to figure out what companion means. How can we be holy, a holy set apart people, if we're doing these things, God? I understand there's some grace for those who don't know, but it's easy to find the information. They don't want to know so they can continue on. But how can we be set apart and holy if we're intermingling with the pagan practices, God?” “You can't be, daughter.” “God, they're already speaking.... (Now this is things He's been revealing to me in dreams and stuff.) God, they're already speaking against you like you're a bloodthirsty God. You know, because You called for the destruction of babies and children and You commanded and demanded a blood sacrifice, but forgiveness of sin is only forgiven and paid through the blood. They're already paving the way for the hatred of the children of God and of you, Lord. Not just Jesus Christ, but You too, God.”

“In one of these dreams, Holy Spirit, lead me. This is where I've been praying about because these things grieve Him. Easter originated.... that name alone. (eostre) It's resurrection, the celebration of the resurrection. The name Easter, it came from that goddess' name. Lord, they're trying to paint Father God as bloodthirsty because He had the children of Israel go and kill man, woman, child of all, but they were nephilim. Or they were those that were not savable because they totally had reprobate minds and were into idol worship and things that poison and destroy and decay the whole nations. That's what they're already starting... this. Lord, You had your children of Israel.... You commanded them to abstain, to not intermingle, and to not mix with the ways and practices of the heathen and that's what we're doing, the people. There's nothing about celebrating Your resurrection with easter eggs and a fertility goddess. It's Your sacred holy day. My heart is grieved, God.”

“As well as Mine is, daughter. The sins of My children are great in many. They're like as with Israel. Come out from among the world and be ye a separate people. Live holy. Live holy. Don't compromise. The compromising ones will be left behind. I have drawn My sword. My sword drips with the blood of the enemy. But for My children, I am the Good Shepherd. I will treat them with love and kindness and patience and joy. I will heal their wounds. I am the Balm of Gilead for them. I am their everything if they will let Me be. But for those of My enemy, I am the Avenging Right Arm of the Lord My Father....And daughter, you are right. It has come to the time, the point where blatant hatred of My Father, of Me has come. Persecution like never before as antichrist installs his system spiritually and physically because it's his time. I once spoke to My disciples on these things when they asked Me about it. That's why I say, Ask, ask and you shall receive. Seek and you shall find.” “Lord, I love You and I praise You. I praise You, Lord. I praise You. I'm just... how can we be a holy, set apart people if we're doing the practices of the pagans? Oh, God, it's not pleasing to You.” “No, daughter, it's not. Being about My Father's business, expanding My Kingdom is not about movie night, not about pastor's breakfast. It's not about the ladies' meetings. It's not about taking the youth here. It's not about this plan program there. It's about reaching the lost, feeding the hungry and the poor. It's being the hands that help the widows. It's not about all this other. This is like the money changers inside of the temple. The only thing is they're giving it away for free.

Come out from among the world and be separate. Be holy, live holy as I was holy. I am your example, not was. I am your example. Lay down this world and pick up your cross and follow Me. Disentangle, loose yourself from this world and follow Me. I'm coming for a bride that's pure and spotless and clean and that longs for Me as much as I long for her, and not one that has one foot in the world. Not one who thinks they can live ungodly, have a dirty garment and just before I come run and change it. That's not how it works. I know the sincerity of each heart. I know the truth of each heart. I know what lies inside each heart and each thought of men, of women, of child. For I created all by My Father's command."

"Once the darkness lifts, the darkness for three days, for there's different darknesses, but the darkness for three days, once it lifts, your world will never be the same. Because after I step out and I reclaim My bride, this world goes into total, utter chaos, mayhem, and destruction as I unleash My wrath upon this ungodly world, and I do so, daughter, I do so at My Father's command." "What do I do, Lord?" "You wait on Me, daughter, you wait on Me. I called you to be a light in the darkest time in history. It is a time for all My children, for all My children, daughter, those left behind, those that get rooted and grounded in Me to become lights in the time of the darkest period of this earth. It's a time of martyrdom. It's a time for those to give their life for Me because they will be hated above all else. You've just seen the beginning, daughter. It's being vocalized. Yes, more so than you realize that My Father, He is a bloodthirsty God because of the sacrifices.

It's a twisting, because the blood purifies. Life is in the blood. They're trying to do away with the blood. They're trying to do away with the knowledge of My Blood because My Blood redeems and saves and is the only one that will. This, daughter, this is what the enemy is doing now and it's going to cause hatred far and wide for any that confesses the Name of Jesus Christ, who confesses the God of Abraham. Then all this will merge into a one world order, daughter. This is where your world is at. This is where your world is at."
