

The Eagle, Putin & Antichrist 2-2-20@4:56 AM Journal Entry

“Lord Jesus, I am here this morning, well in mind and spirit but not so much in body, yet I choose to praise You in all things great and small for You are God over all things. You are Lord of all and Jesus, I just want to say once again, I love You and I love You with all my heart!”

“And I love you as well Child..... Your president Child, has spent the night discussing with the heads of state, those supportive of him and the leader of the military as they discuss their final strategy for their next strike against Iran. Your president has already realized that no matter how many sanctions that he places upon the people of Persia, of Iran, they will continue to defy him openly as they themselves, the leaders of Iran began also finalizing their preparations for beginning this war of nations. The bear has offered its aid should they go to war with the eagle behind the closed doors of the inner sanctum. All these things shall come to pass, for Child, as I have been telling you repeatedly over and over, My words are true and I speak no words idly.

Look Child, see how the world has turned from favoring the eagle and has turned their hearts to the prowess of the bear and that of the energetic Putin whose words of deceit, of lies to your nation drip like honey falling from its honeycomb. As he speaks of peace among the nations he is secretly aligning the many who are disgruntled with the actions of the eagle of late and yes, most shall join with Persia and the bear against your once great nation in this war of nations. But support and aid shall arise for the eagle.

This war of nations is not to be won by one side or another but to be fought to bring about the weakening of the nations that at the proper moment of time antichrist shall arrive upon the scenes of life into the direct limelight as you say. No longer an obscured figure among many in the political field for his charismatic energy, his seducing words, and ideas of false peace shall propel him into positions of power until he is elected the Supreme Ruler of all the earth. Uniting all who once were enemies in a shaky but steady alliance allowing him to rule the world as I have ordained during the period of the time of judgment. All these things have been lined up to occur since before the beginning of time.

Look to the skies Child, and do it often for I am soon coming and My arrival though expected, shall still be a surprise. But when you put Me first in all areas of your life holding nothing back from Me, you will not be caught unaware! Prepare your hearts and minds before Me and continue to make preparations for this war of nations. Just as surely as I allowed Moses to part the Red Sea through My commands so shall this war come to pass and your preparations shall be needed.”
