

The Time of Judgement 11-9-19@4:21 AM

“I’m here Lord, but I’m struggling in my body this morning. Please heal me and touch me this morning but I am here Jesus. Do You wish to speak with me this morning?” “I do, Child, for there are many, many things which must be foretold as the curtains of time are drawn closed and this era of peace comes to an end. Time as you know it Child, will be no more. Woe to the inhabitants of the earth for your time is almost up and soon the time of judgment will begin. Pray, Child, pray for all the lost, for soon and very soon the trumpet of Heaven will sound and I, Jesus, at My Father’s command will return to earth and catch My bride, My true body of believers, unto Me. This will also be the innocent and pure of heart. No deceit or evil can enter Heaven. I am returning for those without spot or blemish. No exceptions and no substitutes will be allowed. When I draw My Spirit they all will come and then, then the time of great judgements begins for man’s sins have been weighed in the balance and is found sadly wanting.”

“Come, Child, and write as I instruct you for these warnings, these prophecies must go forth. The people must be warned. I have sent My servants all throughout your history, your time and have sent My warnings before them. It is out of My great love for mankind, why I have chosen to warn him. To give him another chance to repent and come to Me, for it is My wish, My desire that none would perish. But man was given free will with the choice to choose for themselves whether to serve Me or not. Choose you this day whom you will serve for time is quickly fading and the evening shade is falling as the time on earth draws to an end. Run Children, run and hide for the wrath of your God, the fury of the Lord is about to be released. Perilous times are coming and even at the door. Wake up Children, all ye men and women of the earth for soon ye shall see the time of judgement begin as My Father God steps off the Mercy Seat onto that of the Seat of Judgement and then time will be no more as you know it. “Peace,” they’ll say, “what peace for God has forsaken us.”

“A time of great atrocities and false hopes and dreams as the destruction of this world as you know it begins. Disasters, both natural and unnatural shall occur as the earth unleashes nature’s fury onto the unsuspecting people. If they had heeded My warnings, they would not even be here and those that heard My warnings, but chose not to repent would have tried to prepare themselves when they see all these things taking place. War is coming, Child, many wars and rumors of wars across the earth. Pestilences, diseases and plagues will run rampant and yet mankind will refuse to cry out to My Father God for mercy but this does not matter because the time of mercy and grace will be passed and no longer will I heed to the cries and pleas of the people of the earth during this time of judgement.”

Woe to the inhabitants of the earth for the door of Salvation has been closed unto a crack and now very few shall enter in, but those who will, will find Me waiting, arms open wide ready to receive them and cover them with My blood that I shed for them. All who come, I will wash them clean when they call on My Name and accept Me, Jesus as their Lord and Savior. These are tribulation saints, those who endure during this great and terrible time of judgement. No longer will their sins be before Me, but they will be cast into the sea of forgetfulness no longer to be remembered by Me or Father God anymore. I and My Father are one yet separate. Mankind will soon realize the folly of their ways, the price they must pay for living deliciously in their sins, in the lusts of their flesh.”

“Hail mingled with blood and fire shall be called forth unto the inhabitants of the earth for it rains on the just and the unjust just the same. Turn to Me while you still can O’ ye inhabitants of the earth. Repent while there is still time. Be assured that your sins will find you out for I am all seeing, all hearing, and all knowing. There is nothing that is done in secret that will not come to the light and be revealed. Come, I say Come to Me while there is still time for soon the time of judgment shall begin to fall and you will have run out of time. Do not think that I will repent and turn from bestowing this time of judgment on you? Even though I am a kind God, full of love and compassion and long suffering, I, I am also the Righteous Judge and mankind’s sins have come up before Me within My Holy of Holies and ye have been judged and found guilty. The sentence has been made and passed and now it’s almost time to execute the orders for fallen man’s sentence to begin as the many judgements begin to fall, one right after another. Woe, I say, once again to the inhabitants of the earth for the clock has struck midnight and your time has expired. Woe, I say, Woe! Judgement time is upon you. Repent now while the door to Salvation is still opened wide. Repent, turn from your backsliding ways, O’ nations of the earth and I will heal your land before the great time of judgment begins. Come, I say, Come.”
