

3 Months Time 1-4-20@3:44 AM Journal Entry

“While praying this morning, praying for the lost, for this nation and our leaders, I soon begin to pray about the oncoming war and I keep hearing the words 3 months until it arrives completely. I don’t know if that means 3 months from today, or 3 months from sometime this month, 3 months of another time...another 3 months of another year? Because I was asking how long do we have to get supplies because when war hits full scale, people will start buying supplies in abundance and the items on our lists may be harder to find.

War With Persia 1-4-20@3:59 AM Journal Entry

“I’m here Lord, I’m here and although my mind is raging with thoughts of war to some extent, I also find it mostly centered on You and Your continual blessings and favor on my life. I say to You this morning God, Thank You for Your favor that You continually shower on My life and for my many blessings.” “You are welcome Child, you are most welcome. It is My good pleasure to provide for My children the things they have need of and things as you are learning Child, are not always the actual physical things that you can touch.” “You are right God, yet it never really ever occurred to me before truly just how much You intervene in my life for my good. My mind is somewhat troubled, plagued by thoughts of war this morning and, yet even more so on those lost people, the lost souls who will face the time of judgment and the evil reign of antichrist. I can’t truly imagine God, a world without Your love or just very little in it. I know that Your children, the remnant of Christ, Your Son will be the only source of true love upon the earth. That all traces of love and its effects like mercy, kindness and compassion will be sadly lacking in those remaining on the earth during this time. 3 months God, the time period of 3 months keeps rolling in my spirit and in my mind and I know that it’s concerning the soon coming war here in America.”

“Yes, Child, for it is as you suspected. The 3 month period is the time that you have to prepare yourself for war starting today, from the beginning of this month. For approximately 3 months from now, you, America will be in full war with Persia and soon other nations will follow uniting against this once great nation who once stood against tyranny and oppression, who served Me with their lives and not their lips. War is coming! It is imminent! Child, this is not the shortage of necessities I was referring to in prior talks. You will find locating the items that you need more difficult upon the declaration of war as people out of sheer panic will begin to buy, to purchase items in abundance. Think of it Child, like when your weatherman calls for snow and the people run to the stores purchasing milk and bread and various other items in fear of having to be without. Child, do not hesitate to write these things that I am telling you and yes, this too, this journal entry will need to be available as soon as you are able for Child, the people need to prepare. War times are hard but more importantly the people need to repent, to return back to Me. It is as your other friend has told you, Child. It is as she has foretold you Child, before the passing of her husband. They discussed what would happen if America went to war and he was right. The soldiers of America are now in their majority, young with very little or no actual battle experience for most of those who have faced the atrocities of war have passed or retired out of the services leaving the fresh, young, inexperienced soldiers left to do all the fighting, which tips the favor toward the hand of your enemy already.”

“America as a whole has lost My favor for when she, as a whole, turned from serving Me to serving other gods, My favor and blessings have been slowly removed, leaving her naked and exposed to her enemies. America will always be hated by the eastern nations because her foundational beliefs were built on Me and not their strange gods. I warned you, Child, that I would reveal to you prior knowledge, prior things about this upcoming war, now write them as I speak of these things. To you Kim Jong Un is not your greatest threat but he is still a great force to be reckoned with. Do not let the size of his country fool you, lull you into a state of complacency for they have been preparing for years for a time of war desiring the control of power above the time of peace. It is the way of man thriving on being in control, in power, to dominate all that is beneath him, unlike those who love and serve Me completely, My faithful few, My chosen. For they, they have become servants to all, being led by My examples found in My Holy Word provided by My Father God. I tell you these things not to frighten you Child, but to warn you.”

“Will we win this war?” “Winning is not what you need to be focusing on Child, but surviving it, for war devastates all the people on both sides. There is a purpose and a plan for everything that Father God allows. I know I have given you much to think on this morning Child, yet I tell you do not focus on these things done, focus on Me instead and I will keep you safe. I will never leave you nor forsake you for I am a God of My Word. I hold no guile or deceit within My body, making Me incapable of any form of lying or deceit. Remember Child, as a rule, I generally recruit from the pit and not the pedestal and it’s those who have been rescued from the clutches of evil, from the darkness of the pit who generally have a heart that can be of use to Me. Never stop reaching out to the lost! Be My servant, yet be wise as serpents but gentle as a lamb for people in times of war become broken as time progresses, yet also desperate. Be smart children and use the wisdom and discretion I have placed within you.”

“I will give you everything that you will need, not necessarily your wants to survive until My returning, when you trust in Me completely.”

Philippians 4:19 But my God shall supply all your need according to his riches in glory by Christ Jesus.
