

You've Only Seen a Small Part That's Coming Your Way 8-6-26@9:03 AM Shared 8-10-26

Take up your pen and write. Write My words on a godless nation and world.

Seasons come and seasons go. The season for peace is over. The season of war has come and shall stay until the end of all days and I, then set up My physical Kingdom and rule in righteousness and holiness for a thousand years. Then the end of all time shall come, and the enemies of the Lord shall all be taken to the pit of hell and Judgment Day shall be forevermore a day no one, no being shall ever forget. As they stand before Me the holy Judge of all and My Father.

It is written, it is so, that all will appear before Me to see whose names are found, or not found in My Book of Life. All who remain, shall give an account for every action, every deed, everything they have done while living upon the Earth living inside My created world, the firmament. Few take time, really take time to think ahead of anything that occurs separate from this physical life. So, they embrace this world and its evil ways wholeheartedly. Those people which I have created which are not a nephilim who can appear to look to be human.... are those who, no matter what they fill their life with, there is always a noticeable void inside them that they can't fill or make go away.

This is the place that only I, Your Lord God and Savior, can fill. Once you are redeemed by My Blood shed for you, and I come into your heart with the Holy Spirit of My Father, then you become complete. Whole as you were created to be. I in you, and you in Me. This is where My love comes inside you and I fill every void and every longing in your heart. You will never walk alone or be alone like you were when you walked this world as an enemy and a stranger to Me.

On Judgment Day man's mind, his soul's mind's own memory like a great recorder it is, shall testify either for or against your life while on Earth. This is an addition to the Books I shall behold at this time. Let it be known now that no one stands with you when it's your time to be judged. As in no other person or being, not your family, not the devil, but for those who are Mine to be judged, My Holy Spirit that was in each shall bring forth a record of His own. He is the Spirit of Truth. He shall give a report, a testimony of those who are truly Mine. This will attribute to the good rewards you receive who are Mine, but until this time holy judgment fills the world of man and fallen angels.

I'm coming to set things right. To set into order the preparation for the new Earth and Heaven to come. I shall be the One as holy Judge, to pour down wrath and fire and I shall not stop until I purge away all the wickedness and evilness of sin and its effects on all creation. I bring a refining fire. I am the just and true Refiner, Himself. I bring justice and peace and for 1,000 years all will see and know under My reign of love, righteousness, and truth for those that are here for this time, My words are true.

As the world of man, under the pressure of the fallen ones' manipulation that's in addition to all the holy judgments I have sent down from Heaven's throne, expands until it appears it will erupt and explode into chaos and horror, I say, not until I say, shall this world continue in this destructive path. As the fallen ones try to coerce the world's path out of My purposeful hands. This will not happen!

As the fuse is ignited for the nuclear happenings of declared judgment and it begins to burn with Manhattan, that evil city of Babylon, the great harlot city being struck, I shall suddenly cool the world down and its destructive path and set all back onto the proper course. As I bring down, by My command the three days of darkness.

A darkness of fear and gloom for those who are not Mine.

A darkness where within is the final purging fires of refinement for those who are Mine.

A darkness that touches three days that no one can explain away or give any plausible explanation for until the arrival opening to the world of man of the fake aliens from the kingdom of darkness portraying beings of light but really of the darkness itself. I speak of the fallen angels, the demons, and nephilim who have been planning for many years to deceive My beloved mankind this way.

The darkness comes!

The tribulation comes!

The man of sin comes!

The fake aliens come!

But mostly one must never forget, if you find yourself left here and the tribulation has begun, then know what comes that's worse than all these combined is that I come back to this world. Not as the Savior, but as the holy, avenging Judge of Righteousness and Truth. Wherein I shall release My wrath upon wrath and controlled, systematically precision red, hot anger of calamities, woes, pestilences, plagues, wars, fires of vengeance, earthquakes, and so much more.

World of man, world of demons, and fallen ones, you have only seen a small part of what's coming your way! I will not face you like a small baby, a suffering servant, or a Sacrificial Lamb. I shall face you as the Holy God I am, with Vengeance and Justice as I cleanse this world. As I repay, in holy retribution, even before Judgment Day, to the fallen ones, to man, to the enemies of Our Holy Kingdom their 'weighed in the balances' just rewards.

As I have said, not in boasting, but a simple statement of truth, you oh, world of demons and man, of fallen angels and nephilim, you are not prepared for the one-sided battle at hand, with the crowning victory for My people who will have suffered at antichrist's hands, the battle Armageddon. Where I, in holy righteousness, by holy command, by the words that come forth from My mouth end his tyrannical reign and destroy all the armies he had gathered against Me.

I am not a mere man! I am God's Son.

I fight in fairness and justice. I shall expose your evil doings oh, world to the light of Truth where no darkness shall be able to remain for the evil ones to hide in. If you're not truly one of Mine, then you have cause to be afraid. For My hand of Justice shall not spare the unrepented men, or women. It shall not spare demon, nephilim, or the fallen angels. The time for mercy is over! Only those that are being drawn to repent of their sins and come to Me, and those of Mine still alive in this tribulation period written of in My Scripture of Truth shall find mercy.

With all your preparations you have done evil kingdom of darkness to enter the time of antichrist's allowed reign in great power, in great abundance of supplies, in great wealth, in great abundance of technology, and electronic equipment, with all your preparations for your one world government and military, I say, you're still greatly lacking. I shall continue to reduce your buildings in every area of all you have acquired and even those things you thought you had hidden from the eyes of your holy God who sees and hears all things. Your foolishness knows no limits, kingdom of darkness.

Daughter of Mine, I give this warning so many who still confess to know Me, but still speak doubt of all I have said:

Your faith, you have placed in all you are seeing and hearing on your internet and other avenues of information. Therefore it's causing you to doubt My words spoken are true, when your faith should be in the professed God you serve, which is Me, Jesus Christ, Yeshua Ha' Mashiach who speaks and it is done.

Have not I left you a written account of the miraculous and wondrous things I have done, as My Father commanded in the days before I came to the Earth, so your faith could be strong in your God? Did I not also appear in the world of man as God in the flesh of man? Again, doing the miraculous things that only God's power could do. You've placed your faith in doubt and man's technology, instead of the God who can create a day and all that's in it by a single command. Or seven days by a command each day.

A man, a woman, who has an evil heart of doubt is just that..... Evil!

Daughter, I'm done.
