

God's Mercy Explained By Him 7-7-20@5:24 AM Journal Entry

“Child, today I will talk with you about My mercy for there seems to be a misunderstanding among My people, those who love and serve Me faithfully and even among those unsaved, the lost and dying. You have come to Me in your prayers with a sincere heart and you have asked for Me to give you understanding, because you have found written within My Holy Scripture that My mercy endureth forever, yet, in another location it speaks of Me giving judgement without mercy. I tell you now Child, they are both true and yet, My mercy expands so much more. Let Me explain Child, and I do this out of love for You and My people. It is not necessary for Me to ever explain anything about Myself for I am God and will be so whether man chooses to believe this or not, for it is a fact, but it is also truth. Yes, Child as I have said in times past, I am Truth, but I am many things Child. I am Love, Love itself. I am Wisdom! I show great compassion. I give wisdom and understanding to all who would seek for these great treasures, gifts from Me to all who truly desire to obtain them. But My mercy Child, it lasts forever. It does endure forever more and is unending to those I choose to extend it to.”

“Child, My Scripture tells you My mercy lasts forever, is everlasting in the book known as Psalms. This same book in chapter 103 tells you I am merciful, slow to anger and plenteous in mercy. That it's great toward those who fear, who reverence Me with a holy 'awe' and love. Of it being from everlasting to everlasting upon those who fear Me which means lasting forever, an eternity! Everlasting... Child, 'upon' Child, 'upon' those who fear, who love and serve Me Child. I am merciful to all for I know the frailness of man's ways, because it is I who created all things good and pure, but after he fell into sin in the Garden of Eden, he has now put on a body upon birth that is now corrupted by the sin found in man's existence as a whole.”

“It is through My love and mercy towards man, My beloved creation, that My plan of Redemption, the Salvation of mankind came into being. I knew Child, I knew already before the first man was created, was just a thought, that he would fall to sin through lucifer's, satan's enticements through the serpent found within the garden, yet, I loved him! I loved, and still do love all who I have made that have graced the earth with their presence. For life Child, it is a gift given to all men until their allotted time upon the earth has expired. Are you understanding all so far Little One?” “Yes, God, yes, I am.” “Good. Now Child, when you take the time to study My Holy Word you will find when you allow My Holy Spirit to lead, there is much written within its pages about who I am, for I have not kept Myself completely hidden from Man. My word tells you in the beginning of the verse of Scripture found in the book which is called Proverbs chapter 18 that a man that hath friends, you must first show yourself friendly. This applies to Me as well Child, for if I did not desire to have fellowship with man, but chose to remain in Heaven going about My business alone and do all that I do to maintain and hold into existence all that I have created, this which is good, then I would not have created him. Yet, I love mankind, all people, all color, all races equally with not one being created inferior to that of another, for I am no respecter of persons.”

“Child, I am many things, things too high for man to comprehend, to understand fully, but My mercy, My love, these should not be one of these things. I am rich Child, plentiful, bountiful in mercy and My mercy itself is unending. This also is fact and truth, but there are times among man that I will pull back My mercy from a person or a people. Child, one must also remember that I am a God of righteousness and judgement and I will only tolerate sin up to a point, and now, Child, because I am patient and slow Child, very slow to anger, it will take quite some time, being My time Child for Me to be moved to holy anger and righteous indignation against sinful man as I currently am. But Child, when I told you that I was removing mercy, which I have already done, it was off of unrepented, fallen man, not those of My own or who will become Mine. I will not withhold good from any to whom it is due, but neither will I withhold the punishment from fallen men when they continually, willfully, and stubbornly refuse to return unto Me with a true repentant heart, for your lip service, your words issuing forth from feigned lips are no longer acceptable.”

“It’s My sovereign right as your Creator to bring forth judgment upon all, but being a merciful and kind God of love, will always give warning, giving man a time, a chance, a space to repent which is what I have been doing. Child, what most men choose to forget or to ignore is it is also My sovereign right as Your Creator and as God, to change My mind, My heart. My mind Child, not My ways, for they shall remain lasting forever, for I change not! I am as I have always been, and shall be throughout all eternity. I am ageless, yet, I never weaken or grow slothful as time passes as man does. It is, but of My great love for all mankind that allows Me to continually show mercy unto the sinful man, for a true Child of Mine who serves Me faithfully with a pure and reverent heart, they shall have it forever. As I led you through My Holy Spirit last night, Child, in the book called Romans being located in chapter 9 and even in the book of Exodus in that of chapter 33, that I will show mercy and even compassion to whomever I choose. It is My choice Child, My decision and at times after pronouncing a judgement when and if a person, or people repent, truly repent it will touch My heart. Move My bowels of compassion. Move Me in love and compassion and then I will show mercy unto them just like I did Nineveh when Jonah pronounced judgment upon their city by a total of 40 days. The whole city was brought unto repentance until such a time as judgment was again brought forth and carried out for man’s failure to return and to repent to Me, and before Me, just as has happened on your world today.”

“Judgment has been pronounced, but instead of sending a ‘Jonah,’ I sent this Coronavirus upon your world allowing it to be released accidentally from one of your world’s labs for your world today will not listen or heed to a ‘Jonah,’ as they did in times past. I have used people, earthquakes, and other traumatic happenings within man’s life and your world to try to draw evil, wicked man back to Me, but for the most part to no avail. Because I chose, I chose Child, and not man, to stay, to delay, to pause this war of nations not once, but twice in the eyes of man what looks like an error, it is actually another example of My mercy. It was not unrepented man who was crying out to Me on behalf of your world and your nation, but many of My own once asleep in the sin of complacency, and when they began to stir, then I began to listen and to answer. The problem that lies therein still is, although many begin stirring, it was only but for a brief moment in time and many have returned happily back into their lives of complacency, but to think that I will not stay a judgment unless all were to repent, Child, is wrong. I will do whatever I deem necessary on behalf of just one Child. One precious soul, for this is what man is to Me Child: Precious! The most highly sought after prize! The pearl of great price, for whoever wins the soul of man either Me, Jehovah God, or lucifer they shall get to spend their eternity with them. An eternity Child, all eternity. There are found many instances within My Holy Scripture where I have removed My mercy. Child, to receive mercy, one must also give it, for it is also a gift! A gift that can be removed by man to other men or by Me upon My unrepented creation of mankind.”

“When I sent My angels into Sodom to bring out Lot and his wife and daughters, for they were all who were willing to flee their evil city of Sodom whose wickedness had risen up into My holy nostrils as a great stench as well as her sister city Gomorrah, this was My mercy being shown and given unto righteous Lot and his family, But I had removed My mercy off of these unrepenting, unsaved, heathen people and the pronounced judgment came forth and sentence was given and served when I rained down fire and brimstone upon these wicked cities, but this was not the first, or only time that I withheld mercy upon those who I have pronounced judgment upon. On those not serving Me, the lost unsaved men, the people of your world, for during the time, the days of My servant Noah who was found to be perfect and just among his generation, the people as a whole were in a state such like that of your world and your nation of today. They had become violent and evil filled with much wickedness in their unholy and ungodly ways, as they went about fulfilling every lust of the flesh that their minds could conceive which came from within the evilness of heart. For the heart is desperately wicked when not led or ruled by My love found within it. My mercy was given unto the 8 souls found within the safety of the ark. Noah and his beloved family, but the rest of your world, every single soul Child, every one of them I withheld My mercy from them, and they all perished during this time when My great flood came and washed them away.”

“Child, I am God, and I decide what is best for man, but to leave sin unpunished is like exposing cancer to air which will cause it to grow and if left unchecked as you say, it will spread and consume the whole body, destroying the good in its path, while creating the bad. There are times that for an allotted period of time when My own people start falling away from My love, I will withhold mercy, which when you study My Holy Word you will find it tends to come after judgment has been pronounced, and many, many attempts were made to draw My people back unto Me, to My righteous holy ways. My children of Israel who continually grumbled and complained, who turned from My holy ways to serve strange and foreign idol gods of wood, of brass, silver and gold, I sent warning after warning. There was Jeremiah and Ezekeil, two among many although all were not recorded within My Scripture who preached, who taught of repentance, of judgement, yet, My Israel, as a whole people failed to return to Me and when the foretold judgment came to pass and they found themselves and their beloved city besieged by Nebuchadnezzar, King of Babylon, I turned a deaf ear to their cries, their pleas. I had warned them! I warned them everyone, yet, I am a merciful God and they, My people. I had promised restoration after the pronounced judgement was served... had come to pass, that they would return and I would show them kindness, mercy, compassion and love and return them back to their beloved land within a time period of 70 of your years.”

“So Child, when I led you to James 2:13 which tells you that I will have Judgement without mercy that has not shown mercy, this is what I mean, for unrepented men are selfish, self-centered and your people as a whole, do not extend mercy to another. So Child, when I tell you I have removed My mercy, it is not ever removed off of My beloved true children, for it is forever upon them and will last forever until the passing of their lives, whether by death, or by My Son Jesus' return. But to the froward, the rebellious, evil men and women of your world, this is not the first time in the existence of your world that I have done so, nor will it be the last. For when your world enters the great time of judgement known also as the tribulation period, there will be very little evidence of My mercy upon your world except among My true believers. When antichrist reigns in supreme power for his allotted time in your world, it will be satan...the devil who is in actual control and in a world ruled by him, he who is evil itself, the very origin of its existence, My mercy although not removed will be seen or felt by very few among your world during this time. It is during this time I shall release My full wrath upon your world and your wicked, evil, sinful ways, but you were warned. You all were warned, for many, I say many of your years now, yet, you have failed to heed, failed to yield to the leading of My precious Holy Spirit."

This is also the very reason Child, that your world today, your nation is in the shape she's in and you are facing this war of nations. Your sins have been found out. Your nakedness has been revealed and yet, you have failed to repent, except for a very few brief moments of time. So war shall start Child, in a matter of days. All will know time is up, for you have been found wanting, found guilty when weighed in the balances. So remember Child, mercy is a gift. One that I delight in yet, one that I will withhold and refrain from giving when needed to allow the needed judgment to be declared and brought forth. Yet, to My true, beloved, little children it shall be upon them always, just as My love is, and will always be. Stay strong, strong My little children, and take heart, for I am here and I am not going anywhere unless you choose for Me to leave, or you, yourself choose to walk away from Our holy love. I am here Child, I am here, always."
