

God Said Kim Jong Un Wasn't Dead Words Confirmed From 2020 (Updated 3-26-26)

Putin, War, Kim Jong Un & Covid-19 4-27-20@4:27 AM Journal Entry

Listen to their words carefully for now in your world today, wise counsel is somewhat hard to find. Kim Jong Un shall soon reemerge in a display of power before his people assuring them that he is still in full control as he tightens his choke hold upon them all. For he himself had fallen into the lie, the belief that he was a 'god,' but I have struck him down and he has come to the knowledge that he after all is just a mere mortal man. I say it is appointed unto man once to die and then after the judgement. I am God, Child, and although men may try, I am incapable of looking bad, for the truth of My words shall break forth no matter how hard satan will try to stop them for it is I, not satan, not mere man who is all powerful.

Kim Jong Un Is To Reappear 4-28-20@6:13 AM Journal Entry

“Come Child, let us discuss the matters that are to come to pass for Kim Jong Un is soon to reappear within the eye of the public by the ending of this week for he knows within his heart that it is necessary. Though still recuperating, he is very much alive and in control, running his dictatorship from his bed of recovery. O’ foolish people who trust in man instead of Me to meet your every need. Have I not told you time and time again to trust in Me, for I, Jesus, shall hide all those who trust in Me under the shadow of My wing?”

“Then again I am asking, is Kim Jong Un still alive?” “Yes, Child, he is although it was not himself within his boat that was seen, for he is still recovering from the procedure upon his heart, but he is already in the midst of making his preparations to make his grand appearance into the public’s eye. He has used the ‘episode’ to draw national attention to his small and troubled country.

God Said It, Of Course Kim’s Alive 5-2-20@10:57AM Journal Entry

“God, You are so awesome! You told me North Korea’s leader Kim Jong Un was alive and we would see him back out in the public by the end of the week. There is an article that came across my phone saying Kim Jong Un had reappeared. I looked it up on my computer and it is from Fox News, (www.foxnews.com) published 3 hours ago putting it at 8:00AM by Chris Irvine and it says, North Korea releases pictures showing Kim Jong Un's first public appearance in weeks. When I spoke with You yesterday all You did was reiterate that he would reappear, but in prior conversations on 4-27-20@4:27 AM God, You said he would reemerge. On 4-28-20@6:13 AM He would reappear by the ending of the week. On 4-30-20@4:13 AM You confirmed that he was still alive. So this was not the weekend but by the end of the week which would make it Friday 5-1-20 and this is the actual day he reappeared.

The article says North Korea has released images of Kim Jong Un making his first public appearance in more than three weeks! In videos and photos released by the Korean Central News Agency (KCNA), official state media of the hermit kingdom, Kim was shown attending a ceremony opening a fertilizer factory near Pyongyang. The KCNA claimed workers at the factory broke into ‘thunderous cheers’ for Kim. (The fertilizer factory is actually in Suncheon, South Pyongan province, near Pyongyang, North Korea.) You said God in one conversation yesterday, that he would reappear in a pompous cloud and what better way than cheering workers while you cut a ribbon with ceremonial scissors? God, You amaze me more and more each day and as I grow closer, I find I want to know You more and more. I love You, Jesus, I love You.”

“And I love you, Child!”
