

Have I Got Your Attention Yet? 3-10-26@ 6:43 PM

“Jesus Christ, my love, I'm here. I heard You call out to me, my love. I did, daughter of Mine. Please listen and share what I'm about to tell you.” “I will, Jesus Christ, my Love.”

“Daughter, hear Me well, I send the rain, more rain to your beleaguered nation with powerful winds, more so than already. Did I not say your nation would see snow? It would see hail. Wicked Babylon would see lightning with nature's fury unleashed upon your nation and even world by My command. Repent, I say repent now, those My Holy Spirit are convicting of the sins. Come now, let Me wash you clean from all your sins. Live holy and I will forgive you, wash you clean and help you.

In times past, daughter, I spoke to you and other of My children that the death toll would rise and that some of My own would perish before I returned. This is what is happening now. When I speak of nature's fury unleashed, this means I have commanded the elements in creation, as well as those things found in nature itself to rise up against evil, wicked Babylon America and other nations too.

Soon Israel shall stand alone against their enemies. Is it not so? Is it not written in My Holy Word given to man out of love for them? Everything has lined up as I have spoken prior, but only now is man seeing it come to fruition before his very eyes. Now do you believe My Words, O' world? Now do you believe My words, O evil, wicked Babylon America? Seek Me while I can be found.

I send more than just the tornado to your nation that ran through your state of Michigan killing several. “Oh, this is just normal for this time of year the scoffers are crying out. Tornado season has just begun.” You're right, but you're also wrong, O' mockers of holy judgment. This will be the start, the beginning of an unrelenting series of storms that shall strike the heartland of your nation. From the plains to the Ohio River, to the walls of the Michigan border, you shall see my hand moving.

Snow still falls, does it not, America Babylon? Hail has still been falling. Lightning has come forth. Now the time of twisters and windstorms has arrived. (This is nature's fury being unleashed He was talking about in part.) Where will you hide from Me, your Righteous Judge? Did I not warn you that lightning and nature's fury was coming?

You are evil to the core, a rotten seed of lucifer's. Now America, once the beautiful and free, but now a withered old, puffed up, pride-filled woman who calls herself ‘queen above all queens.’ I am untouchable, you have declared. Have I not just proved you are wrong in this?

Putin sits on the edge of tomorrow, waiting anxiously when he can finally now pull the trigger and push the button to destroy your once great nation from ever rising to power again. Watch how in strategic moves the king of the east of China, Xi Jinping, and Putin of Russia, the bear, present themselves as officers of peace to bring this war in Israel and Iran to a close, while this presents them in a more favorable light to the other nations undecided, which side to take, should this war erupt further? And it will, daughter.

Each move is like that of a move on a chessboard. Each one is cold, deliberate, calculated, and coordinated with each other's country. This leaves your nation's President Trump in his uncompromising position of no negotiations, only total surrender to the world as one who does not seek peace. Neither does Israel's Netanyahu. But he, Netanyahu, is a snake.

The Iron Dome will no longer protect Israel's people as it once did, it has failed to keep Israel's people safe, as I said it would. But there's more yet to come with the Iron Dome that shall crumble like the false security it offered their people. Israel's people should be looking to their God, the God who calls them His people, not to man's technology or idol gods. Yet they are guilty of both with no inward repentance in sight.

All who approach My Father must come through Me, Jesus Christ, His Son, or Father will not hear you. He does not hear any prayer of a sinner except when they repent of their sins and accept Me into their heart as Lord. Then their fellowship with My Father is restored. This is the only way.

Now Babylon, America, now O' world, brace yourself for I'm sending rain, rain of another kind upon you. Not of water, but of rock and metals, for this is what most that falls shall consist of. Not a pouring rain, but one that shall get your attention.

Have I got your attention yet, old world and Babylon? For some, yes. For others, you would rather give your lives up than to admit that these judgments come from the God of Heaven, Creator of All, and His Son. This night, in these times, your soul shall be required of you and I shall take your lives. Then in hell's torment, you will realize too late what your foolish pride cost you, all because you refuse to believe you could be wrong. I say now, this is your choice to end up in hell and then the fiery lake of burning to come because My Word has revealed this and is widely known for the whole world to have and take hold of this knowledge.

I say to the kingdom of darkness, I'm about to give the biggest exposé to the world of your true nature and workings in My truth that your kingdom will never be able to fully recover because My children are waking up. More are dreaming dreams, I've sent them. More are fasting, seeking Me, studying, learning to war against you, O' evil kingdom of darkness. You thought you could just head into the tribulation period as if riding a smooth breeze and set up your new kingdom with your puppet Antichrist.

I tell you now as a righteous Holy Judge of the earth and Heaven, your ride into this period of time will be about as smooth and pleasant as these tornadoes upon tornadoes and high gust winds I call down upon America-Babylon in nature's fury as foretold by this daughter. Have I got your attention, lucifer and kingdom of darkness? Let Me answer that for you because all you do or can do is lie. Yes, yes I have.
