

Darkness & Tribulation Comes; Christians Hated & Blamed 7-4-26@1:58 PM

"Jesus Christ my Love, my Lord, my God, I am here. I heard You call out to me. I, your Daughter, your servant am listening."

Tribulation time has come to the world, and although lucifer and his kingdom of darkness will still run their play script before the world deceiving all who do not know Me, some for a while, others until the end, it is still I, Your holy God and Creator who approves or disapproves all that occurs inside the earth in the world of man and fallen ones. Endless days are coming in which you will spend your eternity in tormenting flames and anguish with gnashing of your teeth. Or you will spend your days in unspeakable joy. True happiness where never again evil's presence can be found.

Sin separates you from Father God and Me. Repentance is needed to restore fellowship back to My Father and it's only done through Me, Jesus Christ, His Son, the Bridge, the Door. The only access point to truly reach My Father and have a beautiful, personal relationship with Him and with Me.

Decisions, decisions, so many in the valley of decision. As lucifer with his demon army influences man's thoughts to lust after the things of the world. You have power, children through Me, through My Name, My Blood to take every thought captive. To bind it and cast it from you because I have given you all power, not some, over the enemy, meaning their whole kingdom. How can I do this? Because I conquered them and they serve under Me now.

They are purposed to do the will of Father God and Me to fulfill what is needed for the evil days ahead and for what has already expired in the world's allotted days here on this created earth. We do not do evil ourselves, but the evil and the wicked do what's needed done easily. Even against their own kingdom and one another at times because the malice in their hearts drives them to do these types of things. Just like the example, one of several, given in the Written Word given to man through the Holy Ghost Spirit of the time of King Ahab's death.

When My Father asked in the courtroom of His throne room, "Who would go and be a lying spirit in King Ahab's ears?" He was asking the question, knowing already in advance, an evil demon spirit would relish the opportunity. For Ahab was evil and loyal to the false gods, including the fallen ones he served. Upon His death the enemy knew he would be a soul that could not be turned by true repentance to serve the holy God of Heaven, My Father. It was his appointed time to die, for it is appointed for all men to die, unless I choose for them not to keep that appointment. Like Enoch, Elijah and others which soon shall include all that I shall catch up to Me in the heavens when I return for those who make up My bride.

Darkness descends upon the world in more than one way. The 3 days of darkness, divine judgment, and final preparations for My children preparing for My return. But it's inside the darkness during the time within that the nephilim, the fallen ones, the demons shall be released. Bringing a darkness of another kind as the physical and spiritual worlds are no longer divided by the spiritual barrier wall and the two realms become merged into one. So that which is spiritual can now be seen with physical eyes.

But even in all this spiritual darkness and evil that will flood your world, I am still in control and I shall still be the Light of this world as a Beacon of Hope for those who are still being drawn to Me, to My cross and sacrifice. My Light can never be extinguished. I am a Consuming Fire like My Father. A Consuming Fire of Holiness and Righteousness. My Blood has done what no other can do. It redeems the ransom soul out of darkness and into My Kingdom of Light. In the days to come, as the tribulation progresses, I shall become the courage and strength of so many who finally stand for My Name. Even before the antichrist has fully risen into his position of power foretold in My Holy Word. The world in anger, confusion, hurt, and despair will turn on those left behind, or who have surrendered their lives to Me after I returned from My bride.

Those remaining in power from the lowest to the highest position will soon, after the official united world inquiry of what caused the darkness, what caused all the people to vanish and go missing... who will be those who make up My bride that is indirectly declared and implicated.... will also say it was due to those who had not been (inoculated) given the proper medical treatment by the government's many (vaccines) things that go into one's arm or other places in the body and their other so-called...cure alls. They will link the missing and lost loved ones to the Christians also suggesting and blaming them for the fall of the 3 days of darkness. Hatred will ensue. Violence and torture of anyone suspected of being a Christian shall soon be fair game as your world says for all these things and murder. Lawlessness will abound.

When the demons, fallen ones, and some nephilim arrive as the fake aliens, as the annunakis, the ancient ones and all the other names they called themselves in different nations and cultures, they will aid the antichrist. But first they should present themselves as peaceful, kind and helpful watchers of mankind. They will say it was their hands that removed the evil ones who tried to destroy the earth. It is those who believed in a false Savior and Creator as they declare themselves the Creator of the world. It's deception Daughter, deception upon layers of deception woven with lies into the truth.

My children would be wise should they find themselves left behind who have repented, once they realized I am who I say I am, the Son of God and I came for My holy bride as it was written, to begin a life of seeking Me for every movement they need to make and for every word they should speak, including when to speak and when not to. Because speaking to a wrong person, even a long time, so-called friend who's been with you through your prior hard times, when it comes to the hunger in their stomachs or that of their family, they will sell you out for money or bread. This is the kind of life you will find you have entered into.

Don't be deceived! There is a time... for a moment of time it will seem like life is beginning to return to some form of normal for some places. Many will doubt the warnings from the past and think they can begin to have some type of normal life again and fall into deception's hand and destruction's path. While other places like Babylon-America will have reverted back to the harder, simpler days of trying to survive with some modern technology still in use and existence.

Lucifer's kingdom, by My allowances, saw bits and pieces of this occurring through such technology of the fallen ones of the looking glass, the chronovision machine and other such like. When you take the few pieces of glimpses and put them together or even the past, then a picture is formed. When really all these devices have done, through the assistance of the demons, is catch glimpses inside the Earth's timeline from beginning up to a certain point in time. Then no one can go past what I have commanded to be viewed.

Once a picture has been formed, then the enemy, to deceive the world into believing they can predict the future will broadcast what's coming hidden inside the world's entertainment. They also broadcast their plans and send predictive, planned, preprogramming to the world's population by repetitiveness of their subjects and agenda.

One such example is the cartoon called The Flintstones in which you have cave men and women and what they depicted as prehistoric days living with modern technology. When actually it's after so much war, the 3 days of darkness with the grids of power down, and so many that will never fully come up again for some nations that are being shown. This Daughter, as I have spoken and shown you before, as well as others, is also how there's so much accuracy in some programming. Such as The Simpsons and the I, pet goat movies. Why even allow it?

Because through this it also helps keep the kingdom of darkness on track. So that they would know who was needed in advance in places, and positions for when the time came for the man of sin to be ready to step out, with the world leaders and finances freely given to him by lucifer for him to rule as the man of sin. As this is written in My Holy Word he will do with his beast system government.

All that's been allowed has been for the Word of God, the Scripture of Truth to be fulfilled so sin and evil can be forever removed. Completely eradicated and confined to the Lake of Fire. So My beloved children can live forever unhindered by sin with Father God and Me and our Holy Angels in New Jerusalem on the new Heaven and Earth.

Now, I say to My children, those who look toward the heavens in My direction with longing in your hearts, for your love runs deep for Father and Me, I have not forgotten you, nor have I abandoned you. You are beautiful in Me in your holy robes of righteousness that comes from trusting and living in Me, in My Word. I love you.

How I long for you to be here by My side. I long to present you to My Father as I honor Him with your holy presence. Because you held on. You were faithful to Me in the end as I am and have always been faithful to you. Has not the evening shades fallen almost to completion? Is not dawn waiting to burst forth in glorious light as the sun returns into the sky? Is not this the same pattern as when I was crucified? What happens once, does happen again. I'm found in the patterns, the periods of three, My return is.
