

Fire & Destruction for the Blue Ridge Mountains & Others 8-23-26@12:12 PM

Daughter, take down My words to share.

I cast My eyes upon the Blue Ridge Mountains where the fallen ones, the nephilim and so many more gather above and below for their evil doings. I've shown you this Daughter concerning all the portal activities found in East Tennessee where you once lived.

It's a gathering place for witches and rituals. For enchantments, spells, and curses to be sent out across the world. A place of uniting for those across the world to meet and gather in secret as they plot and scheme against the people, other inhabitants, and governments of Your world. I know it is, for I have heard every word muttered, saw every dance, and watched as those joined with demons invoked them into action.

I am not impressed!

I am raising up an army of praying Warriors in Me, Jesus Christ in which only one in faith in Me, My Name, My power can tear all this down. That's My power found inside them.

There are more than one that's praying against these such activities. My Word tells My children when two or more agree together, I am there. I am in the midst of them, some translations of My Holy Word say. And for them to ask what they will and I will do it. That's what I'm doing children. I'm answering your prayers and I'm doing it in holy judgment.

I send destruction and fire to the Blue Ridge Mountains. I have commanded it and it shall be so. Along with the surrounding locations of mountains and forests.

I do the same, sending the same Judgment of fire and destruction, the same yet in some instances different to the mountains of Scotland near Dunbartonshire. My judgment shall touch the British Isles, Cancun, and Tibet. Hear Me Daughter, I the Lord have spoken it.

I'm waking up further, the Ring of Fire and shall burn and purge more land, more ritual sites, when I give the command for it to all erupt like a chain reaction, for I am the Creator of them all. My earth shall rise up and aid in the fight against those that do evil. No longer can the blood still be absorbed, for so evil has man and the Earth inhabitants become.

I send this forth now, Daughter, this judgment of fire and destruction starting with the mountain range and peaks found in Tennessee. The state you once called home. Think it not strange that I moved you from destruction's path?

Remember Daughter, when you lived in the apartment in Tennessee that I told you Putin's attack on the Y-12 facility in Oak Ridge would cause fiery destruction where you lived in Cleveland. I told you I would move you safely out of harm's way before the time came. This Daughter, I have done for you.
