

Redstone, Russia, Morocco, Boston & the Ring of Fire 7-6-26@1:31 PM

Redstone shall burn from within Daughter. She shall burn from within to without. It is an evil place much like the Pentagon. I say again, Redstone shall burn from within and then spread to without.

Judgment's hand is falling across this evil, wicked nation, but it still falls swift on the rest of the world too.

I'm about to send..... Hear Me Daughter, Russia, Russia land of the bear. Mother Russia the people call it to themselves. I'm sending a fury, a fury of nature, nature storms her way.

Morocco, Morocco, oh Morocco, Morocco pay attention! Pay attention! I see your evil doings. I am not blind and I am not deaf. I send swiftness of winds, swiftness of winds, swiftness of destructive winds your way of all types, of all types, of all types.

I shake the ground, I shake the ground. Look toward the Ring of Fire. Look toward the Ring of Fire. Look toward the Ring of Fire. I'm shaking it because I'm waking it up....fully awake in preparation for My return.

Boston, Boston, you once through tea overboard because of the exuberant cost. What will you do when no food comes to you? You will pay the high cost or do without.
