

The Deposing of a King Dream 6-14-26@12:01 AM & 2:11 AM

I had this dream twice in one night and it discerns from You my lovely Jesus Christ. Also for other holy ones who tried and tested it. This is a 2 Corinthians 13:1 dream. "Sweet Holy Ghost Spirit don't let me write one word not from my lovely Jesus Christ, nor describe what I see to bring a wrong understanding to these things my lovely Jesus Christ has shown me." "I won't Daughter of Zion."

This dream began when I found myself looking at a king's throne. It was gold with a red velvet seat cushion and back. The red area of the seat and back cushions were lined with white fur with black dots of the throne. I heard a voice out loud ask this question. "How do you remove a king from power without moving him off his seat of power, his throne? How do you depose a king?" The voice paused for a moment then began speaking again. "You strip his kingdom, his nation of its ability to fight or defend itself, and take his money. The throne of power is useless and powerless when there's no power or backing behind him." Then suddenly the red and gold fur lined throne changed into the presidential oval office of the White House in the United States. I focused on the desk and empty chair. "Where is President Trump?" I asked out loud. Then the scene changed before my eyes.

Next Scene:

I saw before me an image of a drawing. It's suspended in the air. It's approximately the size of a piece of notebook paper. I was drawn to examine it closer, so I did. I saw it was a drawing done all in black ink except for a gold crown with some black writing. It looked like a pyramid with a solid gold crown sitting on its pointed top. I have always thought that a pyramid looked like a slice of pie. Why that thought has entered my mind now, I'm not sure. I noticed there was a line drawn dividing the top portion of the pyramid from the rest of it which was the largest of the two divided parts. The top part of the pyramid, which is the smaller separated part, looks like a small triangle sitting under the gold crown and has the words, 'New York Manhattan,' on it. The lower portion, the larger portion below it says, 'America, USA, Babylon,' written on it. To the right side of the standing pyramid was more black writing. On the top right was writing in black with an arrow that pointed to the gold crown that sits on top of the pyramid that says, 'King Donald Trump, President of the USA, America, Babylon.' Then it continues to say, 'He sits on the top ruling it all.'

There's black writing beneath it with an arrow also pointing to the top divided part of the pyramid that says, 'New York Manhattan,' inside it. The writing on the right of it says, 'New York's Manhattan...Babylon-America's harlot city. This nation's financial heart and where world business happens. This is the seat of power of finance for the king.' For the remaining larger, bottom part of the divided pyramid were these words to the right written in black like the other two areas of this pyramid with a crown. It reads, 'The king's kingdom, his nation.' Now suddenly there appeared on the left side of the gold crown sitting on top of the pyramid another black arrow pointing to it that says, 'Commander and Chief over military including defending and fighting.'

I stepped back for a moment and asked out loud, "What exactly am I looking at?" I reached out and took hold of the suspended piece of paper with the drawing and grabbed it with my right hand. As soon as I touched it, it changed into a large folder. On the front of this beige, business size folder were the words, 'Open me please.' I hesitated for only a moment, because I knew in my Holy Ghost Knower, as I call it, I was supposed to look inside this folder. Then proceeded to open it quickly. There inside was a single, square sheet of paper. As I reached for the paper, I dropped the folder and let it fall to the ground. To my surprise there in my hand was a gold ticket. On it were these words. 'Congratulations you have won a sneak preview of the world's staged play on how to depose a king.' Upon reading these words the scene changed again.

Scene Changed:

I found myself sitting at a round polished, wooden table. Where I am at, I'm not for sure. I looked around and it looked like a secured area where files, books, and other things were well guarded. The whole area is subdued and quiet, putting me in mind of a library. Suddenly a woman walked up to me. She looked like a very stern, no nonsense librarian, but I knew immediately she was not. She was carrying a book that looked to be about the size of a 10x13 in inches. She looked at me carefully as if studying me thoroughly, then held out the book as she said, "You are the gold ticket winner. You get a sneak preview of what is about to happen in our world." I took the book from her and realized there was a lock on it. I looked at her questioningly. She reached into her back pocket and pulled out what looked like a gold envelope. It had a wax seal I could tell, but that's all. I couldn't determine much more about it from where I'm sitting. The woman looks down at the gold, wax sealed envelope and I recognize what looked like longing in her eyes. But she quickly stiffened her back, and handed the gold envelope with the red wax seal to me. I took it quickly and mumbled, "Thank you." She said in reply, "In all my years working here, this is only the 7th time I have ever given someone the key to such a book." With these words she turned abruptly around and once again became the epitome of the stern, efficient, librarian type business woman as she walked away. I knew this woman was loyal to the core to whoever she was working for that was connected to the book.

I looked at the book that I had laid on the table when I had reached out and grabbed the gold envelope that I was still holding in my hand. Then I glanced at the elaborately decorated gold envelope. It's decorated with pyramids, the all seeing eye and so many more symbols I recognize as from the kingdom of darkness. I flipped over the envelope to look at the red wax seal and saw in the center was the number 88. "Oh great," I said to myself, "this means antichrist is somehow involved with his evil number 88 agenda. Jesus Christ my love I know this has to be You're doing, for me to be able to look at such a valuable book of one of the enemy's plans." I heard Him answer me softly in a quick reply in my mind, "Daughter you are right. Now unlock the book and read what the enemy has been allowed to strategize under the watchful eye of Heaven's Court." "Okay, my Love I will. Help me to understand all that You're wanting me to know I asked You in Your Name Jesus Christ." "You will Daughter," He replied quickly. I looked at the envelope still sealed with the wax seal and prayed over it before cracking open the seal. Out fell a little gold key into my hand. I looked down at the book that was solid red in color and examined the intricate lock closely. Although it is apparent it takes a key, because I have one in my hand that the librarian type of woman gave me to use, I don't see the actual keyhole.

"What is this," I asked out loud? "Hmm," I said to myself and I spoke these words quickly. "In the Name of Jesus Christ, keyhole be revealed according to Luke 8: 17, all that is hidden must come to light." All of a sudden there in the center of the intricate lock in the small area shaped like a pyramid, a keyhole appeared. "Thank You Jesus Christ my Love," I said in gratitude. Then I inserted the small key into the lock and it quickly came open. I opened the book to see that the pages looked almost ancient and yellowing around the outer edges. The writing looked like it had been written by hand in elegant script writing that I knew hadn't been used for many years in the public, yet I am able to read and understand it here and now. It reminded me of being something you would see on the ancient scrolls of days gone by. The title page said, 'How to depose a king.' with nothing more written thereon the page. I went to the next page and there was the same illustration of the floating picture I'd seen at the beginning of this dream of the pyramid with the gold crown. It's exactly the same with every part identified as before. The king's crown was identified as belonging to King President Trump. The smaller pyramid divided from the larger one was labeled as New York Manhattan, with the remaining bottom half identified again as America, USA and Babylon.

But then everything began to change in the original picture I had seen at the beginning. Right below this first picture is another drawing. It shows the gold crown with the whole pyramid beneath it. The smaller triangle marked New York Manhattan is still divided from the larger bottom half marked America, USA and Babylon. Now though the words to the right beside the king's crown say this. 'King President Trump. Throne of power. America, USA, Babylon is the world's number one superpower.' Directly beneath it in the small triangle marked New York Manhattan were the words, 'Seat of world power for the king.' The bottom part remained the same, but there are more words written below this picture. They say, 'If you remove his seat of power, his throne's position, then he is no longer capable of being a superpower. He has lost his control, his power, and ability to rule. He has been dethroned. Removed as head power, though America-Babylon is not completely destroyed. On the next page there was another drawn picture. This one still had the king's golden crown at the top and had the larger bottom piece identified as America, USA and Babylon, but the smaller top of the triangle piece that was marked, 'New York Manhattan,' has been removed from the drawing. Beside the empty spot where the smaller pyramid with New York Manhattan had resided are these words, 'New York Manhattan destroyed.'

The next section is titled, 'The strategy.' This looks to be all writing with no more pictures currently, so I begin to read. The king has now been removed, dethroned by the destruction of New York's Manhattan from his position as king of power, although still left in his seat's position for when Putin makes his first strike as the God of Heaven and the Nazarene have commanded. America-Babylon will have suffered multiple nuclear blasts inside their walls from our 10 hidden suitcases from within. Our 88 nuclear surprises will have already been delivered beforehand to the king's land, being the contributing cause of the fall of New York, Manhattan. Then the book abruptly ends with this final sentence. 'Waiting on Heaven's Court for their final approval of our plan to continue.' There were still many blank pages in the book. "Now what?" I asked out loud as I shut the book closed, slightly annoyed. Out of the corner of my eye, I caught somebody coming toward me and I looked up to see it was a young smiling man. Once he made eye contact with me, he spoke these words. "Here's what you need to read now for the complete highlights of the timeline," as he held out a white book that seemed to glow. I accepted the book, because I knew immediately he was correct. I looked down at the book momentarily and then back up to find that he was no longer there. He had vanished. "Jesus Christ my Love, do you want me to read this?" "I heard a swift reply, "Daughter, yes. What you now have in your possession is the remaining highlights of what is to come for the deposing, but also the returning of a king." "Thank You Jesus Christ," I replied happily as I opened the book and began to read. I noticed immediately the paper looked like white clean parchment but with a shimmer to it. The writing was in gold in a neat clear handwriting. I began to read once again, but this time in the new white book.

"After the 10 hidden suitcases have been detonated inside of evil wicked American-Babylon's land, the king will go missing during the chaos of being attacked. His removal from the public's eye is ordained by the God of Heaven and His Son Jesus Christ. It is still a mystery not yet revealed to man, or the kingdom of darkness, what will be the cause of his disappearance or for how many days. The queen will arrive and be given an appointed position of power. She will be the voice that will surrender sovereignty and control of wicked America-Babylon to your nation's enemies. Although it may not be recognized by all at first of her evil doings, she will be a puppet on a string to prepare for the takedown of the king's nation even further from the inside in preparation for the bear's possession of the land. An agreement will be reached and the queen will be instated by appointment to the throne, the seat of power after the nuclear destruction again of America's land by strikes of Putin and his evil coalition after having already suffered multiple attacks from antichrist's Pi 88 nuclear attacks and the detonation of the 10 hidden nuclear suitcases fulfilling the written Word of God, before the invasion begins. It will be a classic sell-out.

The queen in her short reign will be preparing to receive the bear's forces to take possession and control of what's left of this once great nation. A deal in which she, which was born a he, can still remain in a position of power and wealth. In her position as queen she will sign executive orders one right after another, destroying what's left of any type of stability of laws and freedom for evil wicked America-Babylon's people, as she, through witchcraft practices and seances continues to speak to her mentor Elizabeth Dole which will also include through AI generated duplicates for her many instructions from lucifer's kingdom in the days to come. Her main orders, her instructions to be allowed to stay in her preferred position of power as queen, she will have to prepare the surrender of the entire nation of America-Babylon without a fight. Ah, but the people will still be rising up. Their spirit will not be defeated for the God of Heaven will have raised up within them the spirit of hope and determination causing them to rise up and fight as He has done time and time again. All because He will still have some of His children within Babylon-America's broken nation's walls. The God of Heaven and His Son Jesus Christ do not abandon their own. Proof of this can be found throughout history and in the written Scripture of Truth. "Wow," I said out loud, "this is really getting good." Then I continue to read to myself.

"The king will return at his appointed time, because the God of Heaven has ordained it to be. The queen will not complete her mission in full, and in shame and disgrace she'll be deposed before the set arrival day when Putin's forces are scheduled to arrive for the invasion. Never forget, Putin of the bear is smart, he is a sly fox. When communications are cut between him and his appointed puppet the queen, he will begin preparing for the invasion of Babylon-America immediately. But the king of Babylon-America is no fool, for he has been appointed by the God of Heaven for such a time as this to preserve His children. He will have at this time already become aware of the betrayal of Putin and those that he once served. As soon as the queen is deposed and communications are cut to the outside world of what's left of the nation's, the king from a hidden unknown location which has been allowed by the God of Heaven, will have prepared for war and invasion, having secretly amassed the ability to defend Babylon-America's borders somewhat. For Putin and his evil coalition are not the only ones who hide things above and below the ground that will be allowed at this time by Jesus Christ until these locations are no longer needed. For it is by His holy command that He, the King of kings, of all nations shall reclaim control of the waters, the air and ground below and only what He allows shall still be available to use and when, by His command.

What this means for every nation is that there are many locations, items and access points once used of these such locations below the waters and the ground and the air that will no longer be available to them at some point of time. An example would be the Chinese soldiers that will invade through the underground tunnels leading from Canada to the evil borders of wicked Babylon-America. Once the Chinese are completely through, they can no longer access or use these tunnels again by command of Jesus Christ, King of the world's nations, King of kings and Lord of lords.

The chosen king, President Trump of American-Babylon, having been born, raised and trained by the enemy has now been placed into position by the God of Heaven to rally the people to defend and fight against the invaders. So to the seat of power, the king's throne he will return. He shall lead the defense against Putin and his evil coalition's invasion, but will not see it to the very end. But like all those who have a savable soul he still has a choice to make that decides his eternity. This chosen king shall fall and another shall rise up to continue the fight against the angry bear and his coalition partners until all the children of God are removed, whether by death or to safety to a safe location. For this is also the time, the Day of the Great King of kings, the King of all. It is His Great Day of the Lord of Wrath that has come to the world and nations during this time. Now reader, behold, what shall you do with this secret privilege information? It's time to tell the world. The end for it is the ending of all days.

I looked up from the book in amazement and said out loud, "Jesus Christ, You are amazing." Then I awoke.
