

It's China, Putin, Iraq and Iran 4-25-20@5:26AM Journal Entry

“Dear Jesus, You are my peace in the midst of a chaotic world and I am thankful that during the most terrifying of storms whether they be physical, of a natural nature or whether they be from the spiritual realm, You are my peace. In Isaiah 26:3 You tell us, Thou wilt keep him in perfect peace, whose mind is stayed on thee: because he trusteth in thee, and therein is how this is possible, because I trust in thee, in You Jesus for my every need. Not once have You failed to meet them although it's not always been how I thought it should be, they were met nonetheless for our ways are not Your ways and how I thought they should be might actually in the long run be harmful to me. I say, ‘Thank You, Jesus, thank You so much for I have found this to be true: You are a good God. You are kind! You are love! You are Joy! You are everything I will ever need, now and forever for You are an unchanging God. Your ways are constant, stable and unstoppable and I choose for Your perfect will to be done in my life. I have no desire for fame, riches or notoriety.

My only desires are to serve You faithfully with my life You have given me so that I can spend eternity with You forevermore in Heaven and to reach the lost, whether it be my own family, my friends or someone else. Hell is real and its torments forever and even those who have caused me great hurt and distress, I do not desire for them to spend an eternity here. I love You, Jesus, I love You. You see in my heart that my intentions are good and I'm praying for my heart to be pure but when there's other people involved, I find myself questioning over and over did I hear You wrong? Did I write something down wrong? Jesus, you know that I don't consider myself a prophet nor am I nowhere equal to these great prophets, these men and women in Your Holy Word who walked before You in Your holiness. I am a nobody but I do and I will through Your strength and Name, walk in obedience before You doing Your perfect will for my life.”

“Do you not believe My words are true? You cannot let yourself be held captive by thoughts of ‘what if’ for Child, I am not going to allow My Child, any of My children when they step out in obedient faith and do as My Holy Spirit leads to fall on your face. Child, I take the foolish things of your world and I confound those who consider themselves wise. Think it not strange that I would choose such an obscure location for things to be brought forth? It shouldn't, Child, for you live in the area that is known by your people as the Bible belt and it's time for the good things of Me to start coming forth once again as My people's hearts start stirring for Me and My ways once again. These things that I speak through you Child, My words do not get diminished or lose authority when I use man to speak them for it is still My voice. It is still all-powerful. Always has been, always will be. I am all-powerful. The way of a transgressor is hard, much harder than My true children's lives for they have Me to lean on for guidance, leadership and love, while the sinner, the unsaved lost wallows in the muck of sin in blindness and despair like a blind man in a maze trying to find his way out.

There's no way to escape a life of sin except by coming to Calvary and receiving My free gift of Salvation, for it's by My Blood alone wherewith all traces of sin can be removed and one can see clearly and find their way through Me, in this maze called life. This is not the hour for just one to proclaim My gospel, My words but I am calling forth many. Some shall heed My call, while others will not preferring to sit on their couch, their bed of complacency while the lost die and go off into hell daily, even hourly. This world Child, that I have made and given unto man has been forever changed by the arrival of this pandemic, this Covid-19 at the hands of China, the king of the east. I say again, although this vial was allowed by Me to be accidentally released, for it was an accident, their government is well pleased with the results of their new biological weapon even though millions of lives have been affected.

I tell you again Child, the king of the east for many of your years has desired and has been preparing to see your nation fall from its lofty position of supreme power and be struck to its knees and now being in a position of vulnerability their leader Xi Jinping shall surely join forces in an unholy coalition with that of the wicked Putin who has already verbally formed a pact, an agreement to unite with Iraq and Persia, known as Iran as they come together in war, bonded together by their mutual hatred for your country. America, the eagle has made many enemies of late, for no longer under My protection and favor your government has in some cases acted foolishly and unwisely turning allies into that of enemies. When the people become oppressed, when given the opportunity, they will rise up against their oppressor and this is why many shall join forces with that of the evil Putin. The eagle shall not be left totally forsaken, for through her continual alliance with My beloved nation Israel and those faithful individuals, those of your people who still truly love Me, your country shall not be utterly forsaken, but she shall endure much at the hands of your enemies.

O' foolish people, have I not warned you to watch the signs of the times in My Holy Word in Matthew 24, Luke 21, Mark 13 and even in 2 Timothy chapter 3 to name a few? Perilous times are upon you, for pestilence is in your land and war and famine are soon to begin. You have been warned to get your hearts right and to prepare both spiritually and physically, for I tell you in all surety I am coming again. My coming is imminent for your world cannot stand for much longer. The time of judgment, as you say, 'is just around the corner!' This is not a doomsday warning as some suppose but for My children it shall be a time of great celebration as they are called into the air to meet Me as I step forth into the eastern sky. At this moment every eye, and I mean every one Child, for even those without sight shall have at that moment the ability to see as I enter through the eastern sky and call My true people, those who serve Me with their hearts and not lip service only. It will be quick, in a moment of a twinkling of an eye but it will be branded into all mankind everywhere and just as swiftly as I come I shall go, leaving a shattered war torn world into further shambles.

For My beloved church, (those ready) the majority of them shall not be made to endure the rule of satan through the hands, the life of antichrist except for a few, a remnant. I shall always have a remnant for My words, My gospel shall always go forth. It cannot be stopped ever, but shall endure until the ending of time as you know it, yet existing even still. Think it strange Child, that I being God who created all would choose to reveal to man My lowly creation all that is soon to take place? It's because I love them. I love all mankind equally and although this evil has been pronounced upon your world, I am still offering you a way to endure these things more easily by trusting and relying on Me and My strength and not your own. Even making a way to escape for those who believe in Me whether you die in this life or escape through My returning, you will spend your eternity with Me, Jesus. For to be absent in this body is to be present with Me in Heaven for surely I say I am coming quickly.
