

Touch Not My Anointed Putin, Now You Pay 7-2-20@5:05 AM

“God, dear Father, I find in all things, all things and not just some, You are good. Through the bad times and during the pleasant, You are good. In all things, all ways You are faithful and proven true time and time, over and over again. I love You, God, with all that lies within this earthly body You have made for me. I love You, I love You, I love You. I am not ashamed of this holy, great love between You and I, nor do I try to hide it. In fact, I want everyone, every person I meet to know and learn of You, God, and Your goodness, Your unending and unconditional love You hold for us all, all mankind. Yet, I also want them to realize, all that I meet that even though You are our Heavenly Father, You are also our righteous Judge and there is a high price to pay when we sin before Your holy eyes. Few people today will even tell others about sin. In a generation where most all are offended and hatred abounds just as You spoke... Jesus, dear Heavenly Father in Matthew 24:10 of Your Holy Word, our world has been broken. Broken by sin in the form of hatred, division among our people, the sins and lusts of the flesh like cheating, lying, adultery, stealing, fornication and such like. In a world where we have replaced Your holy presence with idols of our own making, placing them on the pedestals of our hearts as an individual and as a people, we are broken Jesus.”

“We have become so broken and in our brokenness, we as a people have become more willful, stubbornly rebellious, reckless in our need to pleasure ourselves. The desire controlling us above all else, even those You have placed in our lives, our homes to love and care for. If it were not for Your holy presence within our world today, even though most choose not to see it, we would be completely and totally lost with no hope and no possible way to be redeemed and restored. I, for one, God, I am so very grateful and thankful that You are a loving, benevolent Father and not an unmerciful dictator who sits upon Your throne in Heaven handing out condemnation. Condemnation, this is from our enemy satan...the devil, but conviction, the leading us through Your precious Holy Spirit to the realization that we have sinned and need You in our lives... and Jesus Christ as our Savior, this is from You. You have sent your Holy Spirit upon the earth to do many things like comfort us and teach us, but You tell us also He convicts or reproves I believe is the word that is used in my King James Version of Your Holy Word in John 16. Help us God, please help us to return back to You, to Your holy ways.”

“As in the days of Noah Child, as in the days of Noah and Lot. I warned you Child, I sent warning to all, way in advance to give all My people and the people of this world time to repent, to prepare their hearts for My coming is upon you. It is even at the door. You and your people, your nation, your world should be more concerned about My imminent return than even this war of nations that is upon you, for when I come and remove My beloved bride, those of My church found to be pure and holy, dressed in spotless white, then My divine presence will be almost impossible to find. Almost... I said, Child, for even what is to become man’s darkest hour as satan rises to power upon your world through the man known as the antichrist. Even then I shall have a remnant. A people still loyal to Me and My holy ways and although the door of Salvation will no longer be standing wide open, but closed to just a crack, it will still be open and those who truly seek My holy face and desire and accept Me into their hearts as Lord and Savior, I will still come in. I will reject no one who comes to Me with a true, repentant heart, for I love all men equally and dearly, and My desire is for all to receive My eternal gift of Salvation, of redemption.

For the price for all has already been paid when I stepped off My throne in glory to become an earthly man so I could bring forth Father God's kingdom and die for the sins, all sins of mankind. All are forgivable except when one willfully and intentionally within their heart, speak words of blasphemy against My precious Holy Spirit, for this is unacceptable, unpardonable, and brings you immediate damnation to your soul, wherein you will never, ever feel His holy convicting power again or be acknowledged by Father God and Me ever again until Judgment Day. You will be turned over fully, over to satan, your master with no hope of redemption. This is the fate for all who dares to blasphemy My precious Holy Spirit.”

“My ways, Child, are not your ways, for I am holy. Holy not just in nature, but in all things and all ways, something which man knows yet, can't fully comprehend in his earthly mind. Time and again Child, out of Our great love for mankind, We have sent warning, Father God and I, letting him know when judgement is forthcoming and just as in time's past, man has held true to his pattern of times past refusing to heed, to repent, and running wide open into the depths of his sin and debauchery. I will say it again Child, for there is very little time before the pronounced judgment... this war of nations with famines, drought, flooding, diseases known and unknown and many pestilences are poured out upon your world. Man tends to believe, at least those who are not Mine, yet, still chooses to acknowledge My existence, since I am a God of love, love is all I will give. You are forgetting O' foolish little men, I am your Heavenly Father, Your righteous Judge and I shall administer punishment for My wayward, rebellious people just as you do to your own children I have given unto you. As with you, My punishment, this judgment is given out of love, for it is not My desire for any to perish and sin Child, the wages of sin is death. Not only in that of the natural man, but his spiritual man also.”

“You, when you are a good and loving parent will do all that you can to try to help and reach your rebellious, disobedient children even allowing them a space, some leeway for them to return to a good and obedient way of life, but when they repeatedly abuse your gifts, for this is what they are, and continue on in their sinful, willful ways, then there comes a time where every parent reaches what you have told Me Child is your 'DONE' point. You love your child or children, but you begin laying down the rules, the laws and if they continue to ignore these and go on their merry way, then it is time to begin administering the punishment that you have warned them about and this dear Child, is where your world as a whole, finds itself at. Facing Father God and Me at the 'DONE' point with mankind's unrepented hearts and their willfully and openly sinning, flaunting it before Our holy faces. The stench of their acts of sin, the pleasuring of their flesh rising up into the Holy of Holies, Our most holy place and filling our nostrils, I warned you Child. I warned all mankind that this day was coming, just as I sent warning through Noah, Isaiah, Jeremiah and countless others. Tell Me, Child, where did they all find themselves at? Exactly where I told them they would be, for I am God and there are no lies or half truths as man calls them issuing forth out of My holy mouth. All that I speak and even think comes to fruition, and My holy words, My commands, not one of them comes back to Me void and empty.”

“Your nation Child, she has fallen hard from her position of grace and favor given to her by Me. When she turned her back on Me as a whole nation to serving gods of self and other religions and kicking Me out of your homes, churches, schools, businesses and your government then you opened yourself up to no longer being led by My righteous and holy ways to embracing the evil and unholy, ungodly ways of satan, for there are only 2 masters in this life and that's Me, Jesus Christ, for Father God and I are One, yet, at the same time separate, or there is satan... lucifer who I have allowed for the allotted time to be god of this world. You will serve Me or the other, for when you think you are serving no one, when you refuse My love, My gift of Salvation, of redemption, then you are serving satan...the devil. He is your master whether you are willingly serving him, or unwilling. There are no other options and lucifer...satan he owns the fence.”

“I am sending Putin of Russia from the north joined with the combined forces of that of Iraq and Persia, of Iran from the east to begin this war of nations. Putin, he shall release all his pent up fury and hatred upon your once great nation, no longer having to hide behind his facade of friendship, for he is as a snake who has been coiled and is ready to strike, waiting for the exact moment for your nation to move, to become weakened so he can strike and release his deadly venom into your once great nation,. But his venom, his poison of choice will be in the form of missiles made with the power of the nuclei and when he releases them upon your unsuspecting nation by land and by the vessel from the deep hidden within the waters nearby, he will be made to feel even more so than he does now, a god among men, and this will be his undoing. For I, I am the one true God, and no man will place himself above Me ever. I set leaders, rulers up and I cast them down. When he dares to lift his hand and unleashes these strikes by these weapons of the nuclei upon your nation, for there will be 2 and then sets foot to invade your soil, his days which are already numbered due to his evil, wicked ways if he does not repent before Me his Maker, then the countdown upon his life will begin and he will not live to see the ending of this war of nations which shall only come after Father God gives the command for Me to return and claim My bride. If He has not done so already, Putin will learn also when I say, ‘Touch not My anointed,’ I mean, ‘Touch not My anointed,’ and this includes that which once belonged to Me in times past as well what is currently is also.”

“The evil Putin will find himself betrayed by his own individuals among the high ranks of his beloved military, bought by words of promises and flattery by that of the king of the east, from the mouth of Xi Jinping, himself. For the coalition between these 2 nations of China and that of Putin's beloved Russia will be built upon a foundation of lies and deceit. Although each will need the other's country to war and to invade your troubled nation, each ruler desires to become the supreme power, but neither shall rise above the other. When Putin is viciously struck down by those he trusts most for refusing to repent from his wicked, evil ways, I will raise up another from among his ranks more brutal and more calculating than even Putin has been. One who shall be able to rise against Xi Jinping's attempted takeover, maintaining the balance of power between the two and allowing this coalition although shaky to stand. Few shall truly know or find out the cause or who was behind the evil Putin's death. You will find Child, even throughout your records of history, when satan is in control, then evil does always abound. Putin will die upon your soil, for once the invasion upon your soil begins, he is free to return to his beloved Russia as often as he desires. For this land, the power to rule over it and himself is all that he is capable of loving in his hardened, blackened sin-filled heart. I shall take all that he loves from him for daring to touch that which I once called Mine. Upon the first foot he places upon your soil in the aggressive act of war of invading your once great nation, then he will never set foot on his beloved Russia, the bear ever again.”

“All who rises against your nation and that of My beloved nation Israel shall receive a just punishment, but some will be administered during the time of judgment, the period that is also known to mankind already as the great tribulation when the enemy rules through antichrist, his puppet, and satan...the devil will reward those who serve him with chaos, death, and with utter destruction. Even then the most loyal of his followers will be shown no kindness or mercy, for these are attributes of Me and will never be found in him for he is evil, evil through and through. Do not let this information shake you Child, for judgment has been pronounced not just on your nation and your people as a whole, but all of your world. Few therein have been found faithful and pure in heart towards Me. I tell you these things Child, for nothing is hidden from Me and I see the intentions of each heart before the thoughts are born into their minds and become actions. I am God, Child. I am God. I am the Supreme Ruler of all that you know and that which you do not! I am not limited to man’s limited abilities. Remember Child, it is I, who created man and gave them to each person, each individual, and I, being the divine Creator, will not take heed to the incoherent ramblings of man when he tries to set himself up above Me. I cast lucifer out of Heaven for this very act and look at what he has become! Man has been becoming his very own, evil little children.

These things ought not to be, yet, even upon the creation of lucifer and mankind I knew these things would all come to pass. Again I say, nothing is hidden from My ever present, all seeing eyes. Yet, My love is great for all that I have created, and so the great plan of Salvation was brought forth by Father God and I chose willingly to die for all mankind. Every single thing, every occurrences that occur upon your world and in the Heavens above is ordained by Father God for His perfect will to be accomplished upon your earth Child, which does include at times for His permissive will to be allowed. Our perfect will is for all men to repent and come unto Me and for none to perish, but His permissive will is where in one instance I will give you, when He allows man to choose for himself who to serve: Me or satan, and if they choose to accept Me into their hearts, this is His perfect will. If they refuse Me and accept satan...lucifer as their master...for each person will serve one or the other regardless... then this becomes Father God’s permissive will. He allows each person the choice, the decision to choose for themselves where to spend their eternity. Father God and I, being a God of love do not strike man down for choosing to walk in Father’s permissive will, for great is the love We hold for mankind. Choose you this day whom you will serve, for to survive this war, this war of nations you would do good to choose wisely. For again I say, it will also determine your eternal destination whether it be Heaven or hell. Again, I say choose, choose now. Consider the cost and choose wisely.”
