

Redstone Falls & Bohemian Groves Burn 9-5-26@7:42 PM Shared 9-6-26

Redstone Falls Daughter. Redstone shall fall, that evil wicked place of illusions, deception, and trickery. Within the heart of this place is where much deception is discussed and brought to fruition. When I am done, Redstone shall not have much left of her buildings standing. She shall burn Daughter, burn from the inside outward. Parts of this wicked place shall implode. This I've spoken and it shall be.

Destruction comes to Alabama Daughter but destruction also comes to California. In the mountain groves the worship and idolatry, human sacrifices are still occurring at the hands of the rich, the famous, the so-called elites of your world.

Hear Me lucifer, I'm about to strike and strike hard the groves in the mountain that you have so lovely called the Bohemian groves. Tick tock, time is ticking down for this abominable place of desecration and so much evil. Fire, purging wild out of control fire that no man, no machine, no technology can stop at spreading, because it is fire I send down from My Heaven. The Judgment fires of Heaven.

For every life that has been taken and their blood shed, I shall require the blood's account to each who have participated that still remain alive in this world of men today. The others buried and in hell are receiving the beginnings of the rewards already that will be completed when after the Great Day of Judgment hell shall be cast into the burning Lake of Fire.

Most of you think you are untouchable, as far as feeling any remorse or regret for what you have done and still do today. Because you have already within you a reprobate mind without any hope for redemption's promise found through My Blood when someone accepts Me into their hearts as Lord and Savior.

But oh My Father grants to each of you dreams.

Dreams that cannot be forgotten.

Dreams that no drug, alcohol or pharmakeia can drive away.

Dreams of what you have done, accompanied by the showing of the defeat of the fallen ones and demons you faithfully serve.

Dreams of your final eternal resting place for eternity which is the burning Lake of Fire.

This I decree and command to be in full fruition inside the created firmament as each from this point forward attempt to sleep.

To the fallen ones I say, troubled minds and tired ones, makes for a lot of mistakes as well as mistrust that shall arise when those receiving these dreams and night terrors, realize they're not alone. A house divided shall fall and if you have not realized with all the strategic judgments sent down from Heaven's Throne, the dividing of your kingdom to bring its fall has already begun.

Now watch Me burn to the ground much of your unholy Bohemian groves in pure holy judgment.
