

War is Coming 12-21-19@2:45 AM Journal Entry

“I’m here Jesus, I’m here!” “Yes, Child, for I am here as well. Child, I hear your cries, your overwhelming desire, your weeping to be with Me now in Heaven for when you love someone as deeply as you love Me and I love you it’s difficult to be apart. But Child, We are never truly apart for I am with you always. I promised to never leave you nor forsake you Child, and I have been true to My word for I cannot lie even if I wanted to. For there is no sin, no guile, no evil found within Me nor will there ever be. Separation can be hard Child, but necessary at times. There is work for you to do here, on the earth. Souls to be reached, for the lost are many and rapidly increasing daily. Be My voice Child to the nations. Sound the alarm for the time of judgement is almost upon you. War is coming to your nation Child. It is now imminent for what man says within his heart, ‘It’s impossible!’ I will show them just how possible it is for when man cries, “Peace, Peace,” then sudden destruction shall soon overtake them.”

“Do not fret over the people you warn who scoff at your words of warning but let My Holy Spirit continue to work on those I call Mine. You have done your part.” “But it’s hard, God, for if war is truly coming as You say to America and I believe Your words are true, then help us God, for we are so unprepared.” “There will only be one man upon this earth who will truly be ‘ready’ for war and that is antichrist who is born and bred and raised to conquer and rule the world by satan, himself, the great deceiver of all mankind. For it is he that caused the people of your once great nation to be lulled into a false sense of security, into false peace for this is when the enemies of your nation will strike and they will Child, they will. I am no respecter of persons and I will call rain down upon the unjust and that of the just. It makes no difference to Me whether or not you hold a title, wealth and great riches of your world or whether you be poor and downtrodden, even a lowly beggar on the street. I love all men equally and I sent My Son Jesus Christ to die for all men upon Mount Calvary. This allows men, all men to come and be washed of their sins in the cleansing flow, so that he can come before My holy presence in My Holy of Holies and there fellowship with Me once again. For I am Jehovah God, Lord of all creation for I am your Creator, the Creator of all that is good.”

“War I say, is coming to your nation Child and it will not be long and its effects shall sweep swiftly across your land! This is not the end time judgements that I have foretold of for that is still yet to come. This is a prefix, a beginning to the ending of time, for with this war, there will be the beginning of a chain of events that shall take place that will help usher in the end time judgements. All these events, these happenings and occurrences are preparations for the coming of antichrist so that he will be able to assume power, assume control more easily. For a broken people are more easily deceived than a people that are strong!” “I understand, God.” “Tell My people Child, that war is coming to America. Tell My people the time of judgement is almost upon them for when My Son Jesus returns for His bride, His beloved church, then I will move onto the Seat of Judgement and time as you know it will be no more. Tell them, Child and do not fret for those who do not receive My words but rejoice over those that do!” “I will, God, I will.”
