

Abortion, Antichrist & His Mark 12-3-19@4:55 AM

“I’m here Lord, yet my heart is still heavy, heavy for this nation. How far have we fallen from grace God, that we, as a nation, will take the body parts of an aborted baby and use them to further our scientific research. I find this horrific and it troubles me, troubles me greatly.” “As it should Child, for man holds little regard for the sanctity of human life. Their barbaric and evil ways have reached into the Heavens and the stench from their sins has reached into My Holy of Holies. I hear the cries of these innocent children cry out to Me continuously as their small lives are snuffed out by selfish, uncaring, unfeeling man today. These precious little ones are gifts sent down from My Father above and instead of receiving these gifts, you take their small innocent lives and rip them forcibly out of the protectiveness of their mother’s womb! The blood of many children are upon the hands of this once great nation. Not just America but all the nations who participate willingly in this barbaric practice. Human life is sacred, given by God the Father for it is His breath that brings each soul to life and His loving hands that create each and every individual person that has ever inhabited the earth and those still yet to come. To see what you created become so evil and callous, to cause the destruction, the deaths of precious lives of the others of His created, it is horrendous. If it had not been for My Father’s long suffering ability and His great unconditional love for mankind, they would no longer exist, for mankind reached this level, this degree of evil and wickedness before and Father God sent the great flood, destroying all life of man and beast and all creatures great and small, save for the eight souls of Noah and his family and the creatures within the ark. That day the remaining earth’s population perished and went to hell all at the same time.

My Father has vowed to never destroy His beloved creation mankind in that magnitude again, thus you now have the end times. The time of judgment that shall befall man for retribution for their many sins and transgressions. Woe to the inhabitants of the earth for now, now is the soon coming day of the wrath of the Lord, for the hidden sins of man are about to be revealed. Be sure Child, that every deed done by man whether done in secret or whether it be out in the open, Father God sees it all. He is all knowing, all hearing, and yes, Child, all seeing. Nothing, absolutely nothing will ever be able to get past Him. Man thinks because no one else sees his evil deeds that he will go unpunished. You are wrong, so very wrong! Father God even now is lining up the sins of the people, of the nations and every person will give an account for every deed done and every idle word that’s been thought or spoken. Judgement is coming and is upon you even as we speak. Rest assured your sins will come out and payment for them will be exacted by Father God. All that We have been speaking to you Child in these last few months is to warn the people and give them a chance to repent. To be washed clean from their sins while there’s still time for them for when the time of judgment starts, very few souls will choose to come to Me. But instead, as the judgments begin to fall and the mass destruction of the earth and its inhabitants begin to take place, fallen man as a whole will run wide open like a screaming train without any brakes into their sins. Into their wicked ways allowing the desires of the flesh to totally consume their hearts and lives.”

“YOU HAVE BEEN WARNED continuously, time and time again and you have not heeded My words, My advice and now for many, many people it will be too late! With the collapsing of most governments due to the many natural and unnatural disasters along with the disappearance of My people, My beloved true church and all the pure and innocent of heart the earth’s economy as a whole shall fail. Then from amongst the ashes and rubble of the chaotic destruction, a lone figure shall arise. A beacon of hope, the savior of man's decaying world. It is antichrist, the great deceiver filling men's hearts with false hopes and expectations. Telling of his great plan to make the world better again. He will be charismatic, well liked and loved by all, but his heart, his heart is blackened and full of much evil for it is lucifer himself that is the driving force behind his rise to power. He will hide his true nature of cruelty and hatred, hatred for all people, all mankind especially the Jews and those who openly confess their love for Me." "Help us Lord, for I do not want to be here or have anyone that I love still be here during this time." "Then stay ready Child. Stay prayed up and your heart clean before Me for this will be the darkest period of time ever recorded in your earth's history After antichrist's rise to power he will be elected as the Supreme Ruler over the remaining nations, for many will have fallen and crumbled due to the continuous flow of disaster upon disaster. He will declare himself God after receiving a death blow to his forehead that he will miraculously recover from. But what the world does not see is at the time of his death, satan, himself shall enter into the body of antichrist taking full possession of the mind and body and will be the one in control and in power from henceforth. No longer just the driving force pushing antichrist, he now is actually the antichrist. Then WOE to the inhabitants of the earth as the full force of his cruelty, his depravity and his hatred come out to all people, all people everywhere for very few will be unaffected by his great wrath. He rules his people along with his many armies with an iron fist. His reign of terror will spread over the globe and all who oppose him will be crushed, snuffed out along with their family and any known acquaintances for the value of human life is useless to him. People are to him as but slaves, not fit for nothing but to serve his many depraved needs. His vast armies will be made from those who eagerly are willing to serve their beloved leader, following after him just like a dog who is treated cruelly by their master who still follows him blindly out of loyalty."

It will be a time of great distress for people everywhere and life itself will be hard to survive for famine, disease, pestilences and reoccurring natural disasters and wars shall be rampant. No one shall be exempt yet in all this I can still be found to those few who will diligently seek to find Me. For My Blood has never stopped flowing down Calvary, nor will it ever. I, Jesus have given My life freely for all mankind but it will only be a few that will come to Me at this time for it's during this time that satan inhabiting antichrist's body shall implement the taking of his mark by man on his forehead or right hand to be able to buy or sell. People will already be desperate and distraught by this time due to the lack of food, medicines and supplies needed just to survive and will jump at the chance to receive this mark. Because antichrist will open his vast storehouses to all who take this mark. But all who take it will actually be selling their souls unto satan and upon receiving this mark will become reprobates, no longer fit or having the possibility of ever entering into Heaven's gates!"

"Help us, Jesus, please help us all!" "Child, once man has entered this time of judgement no help, no aid or assistance is coming, Child and it's coming fast and nothing is going to stop it. There will be no more extended periods of grace after this one you're currently in expires, and Child, the sands of time have already started to resume falling and when the hourglass of time empties totally, the time of judgement will begin. There will be nothing you can do to stop it. The only hope anyone has of escaping this dark time upon the earth is to be ready for My blessed returning for My bride, My true church, for those who truly love and serve Me. So I'm telling you now Child and I'm telling all, GET READY, GET READY NOW, OR YOU WILL BE LEFT BEHIND AND YOU WILL FACE THE TIME OF JUDGEMENT.”

“Every last one who is left standing, that is still alive at the end of the time of judgment (tribulation) will then be made to face Father God and stand before Him on Judgement Day. Even those that have died prior, they shall be judged also and then each man, woman and child will receive their final judgement that will determine where they will spend eternity either in an eternity with Me in everlasting peace, joy and love in Heaven or either eternal torture and damnation in an eternal lake of fire suffering greatly along with satan, the devil and the fallen ones. So choose and choose wisely! Man was given free will for such a time, such a moment as this, so once again I say, ' Choose and choose wisely.' For your choice whether to serve Me or not has eternal consequences. Again, I say, choose, choose today and choose wisely”

{Note: My understanding since this speaks of Father God sitting as Judge is that this judgment time is what occurs after the tribulation also called the Great White Throne Judgment. There's more than 1 time of judgment. Please try, test and discern this in Jesus Christ's Name. (Daniel 7:9-11)}
